

Veterans honored at Centennial Exhibit

BY SANDY ZIMMERMAN

Guest writer

Centennial Exhibit volunteers invites everyone, especially Veterans, to stop in on Memorial Day weekend for refreshments and an opportunity to honor those who served with a handmade square for a quilt to be placed in the historic courthouse when restoration is completed.

The exhibit is open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays and on Memorial Day from 12-2 p.m. It is located on Sanderson Street next to the Post Office.

Friends of Historic Courthouse volunteers staff the

The Centennial Exhibit has a Veterans Room with war history and recognitions of veterans.

exhibit with historical and area event information including upcoming activities to support the restoration fund. In addition to historical photographs, displays include a Veterans room, retro farm house items, Hayesville Schools history and a quilt room featuring handmade items from area quilters. A selection of gifts are available from the Courtroom Boutique Corner and items from local artisans are available to win in the new summer raffle.

Stop by the exhibit or watch for volunteers at events on the square to shop or donate to the restoration fund managed by Clay County Communities Revitalization Association. Call 389-2121 or visit: www.cccra-nc.org for more details.